Membership Benefits and Application Procedures

The American College of Allergy, Asthma and Immunology is a leading organization of physicians and allied health professionals who diagnose and treat asthma and allergic diseases. Membership is open to all allied health professionals who have an interest in the field, and seek to advance their career.

Membership Classification.

Allied Members. To qualify as an Allied Member, an applicant shall be a registered nurse (RN), nurse practitioner, clinical nurse specialist, certified physician's assistant (PA), a licensed practical nurse or other non-physician engaged in a technical or administrative position in allergy/immunology, shall be sponsored by an ACAAI Fellow/Member and shall meet such other criteria as may be established from time to time by the Board of Regents.

Membership Benefits.

- Online access to the Annals of Allergy, Asthma and Immunology.
- Reduced registration fees for the ACAAI Annual Scientific Meeting.
- Subscription to AllergyWatch, a bimonthly review of recent literature related to allergy/immunology.
- College Insider, an informative email newsletter.
- Subscription to the printed College Advantage newsletter.
- Online access to ACAAI's member-only resources, including the Practice Management Center toolkits and webinars.

Guidelines for Completing the Application.

- Type or print clearly. Illegible applications will be returned.
- Complete all sections of the application. If a section does not apply, please enter N/A.
- Include a letter of recommendation from your sponsor with your application. Need help? Download our sample letter of recommendation.
- Include a copy of your Curriculum Vitae/Resumé.
- Sign and date the application.
- Enclose the required $25 application fee.
- Mail, fax, or email the application to ACAAI.

ACAAI Member/Fellow Sponsor.

- Your sponsor must be a physician Member or Fellow of ACAAI. If you do not know an ACAAI Member/Fellow, contact the Membership Department at 847-427-1200 for a list of members in your area. Your sponsor must submit a letter of recommendation. Your application will not be considered unless a letter is received.
- The sponsor's recommendation should be on letterhead stationary and include the type of work performed by the applicant, and his/her character and ethical standing.

Application Review Process.

Upon receipt of your completed application (all questions answered, sponsorship letter and $25 application fee received) it will be forwarded to the Credentials Committee for review and recommendation. Your application will then be considered by the Board of Regents. Membership applications are considered by the Board of Regents at its Spring and Fall meetings.
